Parole: victims’ representation

Victims’ representation at Parole Board hearings

(1) Section 17 of the Criminal Justice (Scotland) Act 2003 (asp 7) is amended as follows.

(2) After subsection (1), insert—

“(1A) Representations under subsection (1) may include notification by the victim of a desire to be heard (either in person or through a representative) at the relevant hearing of the Parole Board for Scotland.

(1B) In this section, the “relevant hearing” of the Board is the hearing at which the Board is to consider the convicted person’s case in order to decide whether to recommend, or direct, that person’s release on licence (and if there are to be a number of hearings which otherwise meet this description, the Board may determine which is the relevant hearing for the purposes of this section).”.

(3) In subsection (3), for “Parole Board for Scotland” substitute “Board”.

(4) After subsection (5), insert—
“(5A) Where representations are made under subsection (1) which include notification of a desire to be heard at the relevant hearing, the Board must—

(a) give the victim reasonable notice in writing of when and where the hearing is to take place and invite the victim to—

(i) attend the hearing, with or without an accompanying person, in order to be heard in person; or

(ii) send a representative to the hearing to be heard on the victim’s behalf;

(b) in so doing, give the victim appropriate information about the hearing and how it is likely to be conducted including, in particular—

(i) information about any parts of the hearing from which the victim and any accompanying person are, or the victim’s representative is, to be excluded, and

(ii) any limits on their participation during the other parts of the hearing;

(c) at the hearing, afford the victim (or the victim’s representative) a reasonable opportunity to be heard.

(5B) A victim’s representative may only be a member of the victim’s immediate family or a friend of the victim.

(5C) In reaching its decision at or after the hearing, the Board must take account of—

(a) any written representations made under subsection (1); and

(b) anything said by the victim (or the victim’s representative) at the hearing.”.

(5) In section 20(4) of the Prisoners and Criminal Proceedings (Scotland) Act 1993 (c.9) (Parole Board rules), after paragraph (ba) insert—

“(bb) in relation to victims who have made representations under section 17(1) of the Criminal Justice (Scotland) Act 2003 (asp 7) which include notifications of a desire to be heard at the relevant hearing (within the meaning of subsection (1B) of that section), enabling such victims to attend such hearings of the Board;”.

Dockets and charges in sex cases

After section 288B of the 1995 Act insert—

“Dockets and charges in sex cases

288BA Dockets for charges of sexual offences

(1) An indictment or a complaint may include a docket which specifies any act or omission that is connected with a sexual offence charged in the indictment or complaint.

(2) Here, an act or omission is connected with such an offence charged if it—

(a) is specifiable by way of reference to a sexual offence, and

(b) relates to—

(i) the same event as the offence charged, or

(ii) a series of events of which that offence is also part.

(3) The docket is to be in the form of a note apart from the offence charged.

(4) It does not matter whether the act or omission, if it were instead charged as an offence, could not competently be dealt with by the court (including as particularly constituted) in which the indictment or complaint is proceeding.

(5) Where under subsection (1) a docket is included in an indictment or a complaint, it is to be presumed that—
288BB  Mixed charges for sexual offences

(1) An indictment or a complaint may include a charge that is framed as mentioned in subsection (2) or (3) (or both).

(2) That is, framed so as to comprise (in a combined form) the specification of more than one sexual offence.

(3) That is, framed so as to—
   (a) specify, in addition to a sexual offence, any other act or omission, and
   (b) do so in any manner except by way of reference to a statutory offence.

(4) Where a charge in an indictment or a complaint is framed as mentioned in subsection (2) or (3) (or both), the charge is to be regarded as being a single yet cumulative charge.

(5) The references in this section to a sexual offence are to an offence under the Sexual Offences (Scotland) Act 2009.

Section 47

Robert Brown

541  In section 47, page 61, line 2, at end insert—

Prohibition of personal conduct of case by accused in certain proceedings

(1) The 1995 Act is amended as follows.
(2) In section 288C (prohibition of personal conduct of defence in cases of certain sexual offences)—

(a) for subsection (1) substitute—

“(1) An accused charged with a sexual offence to which this section applies is prohibited from conducting his case in person at, or for the purposes of, any relevant hearing in the course of proceedings (other than proceedings in a JP court) in respect of the offence.

(1A) In subsection (1), “relevant hearing” means a hearing at, or for the purposes of,
which a witness is to give evidence.”, and

(b) subsection (8) is repealed.

(3) In section 288D (appointment of solicitor by court in cases to which section 288C applies)—

(a) in subsection (1), after “proceedings” insert “(other than proceedings in a JP court)”,

(b) in subsection (2)(a), for sub-paragraphs (i) and (ii) substitute—

“(i) the conduct of his case at, or for the purposes of, any relevant hearing (within the meaning of section 288C(1A)) in the proceedings; or”;

(c) in subsection (6), for the words from “of the accused’s defence” to the end substitute “referred to in subsection (2)(a) above.”.

(4) In section 288E (prohibition of personal conduct of defence in certain cases involving child witness under the age of 12)—

(a) subsection (1) is repealed,

(b) in subsection (2)(b), for “the trial” substitute “any hearing in the course of the proceedings”,

(c) after subsection (2) insert—

“(2A) The accused is prohibited from conducting his case in person at, or for the purposes of, any hearing at, or for the purposes of, which the child witness is to give evidence.”,

(d) in subsection (4), at the end insert “and as if references to a relevant hearing were references to a hearing referred to in subsection (2A) above”,

(e) in subsection (6)—

(i) for paragraphs (za) and (a) substitute—

“(a) that his case at, or for the purposes of, any hearing in the course of the proceedings at, or for the purposes of, which the child witness is to give evidence may be conducted only by a lawyer,”, and

Kenny MacAskill

522 After schedule 2, insert—

<SCHEDULE

(introduced by section (Convictions by courts in other EU member States)(1))

Convictions by courts in other EU member States: modifications of enactments

Part 1

The 1995 Act

1 The 1995 Act is amended as follows.

2 In section 23C(2)(d)(i) (previous convictions to be taken into consideration in determining bail), for “outwith Scotland” substitute “by courts outside the European Union”.

3 In section 27 (breach of bail conditions: offences), after subsection (3) insert—

“(3A) The reference in subsection (3)(b) to any previous conviction of an offence under subsection (1)(b) includes any previous conviction by a court in England and Wales, Northern Ireland or a member State of the European Union other than the United Kingdom of an offence that is equivalent to an offence under subsection (1)(b).

(3B) The references in subsection (3)(c) to subsection (3) are to be read, in relation to a previous conviction by a court referred to in subsection (3A), as references to any provision that is equivalent to subsection (3).

(3C) Any issue of equivalence arising in pursuance of subsection (3A) or (3B) is for the court to determine.”.

4 In section 202(2) (deferred sentence), for “Great Britain” substitute “the United Kingdom or in another member State of the European Union”.

5 In section 204 (restrictions on passing sentence of imprisonment or detention)—

(a) in each of subsections (1) and (2), after “United Kingdom” insert “or in another member State of the European Union”;

(b) after subsection (4) insert—

“(4A) The court shall, for the purpose of determining whether a person has been previously sentenced to imprisonment or detention by a court in a member State of the European Union other than the United Kingdom—

(a) disregard any previous sentence of imprisonment which, being the equivalent of a suspended sentence, has not taken effect;
(b) construe detention as meaning an equivalent sentence to any of those mentioned in subsection (4)(b).

(4B) Any issue of equivalence arising in pursuance of subsection (4A) is for the court to determine.”.

6 In section 205B (minimum sentence for third conviction of certain offences relating to drug trafficking)—

(a) in subsection (1)(b), for “been convicted in any part of the United Kingdom of two other class A drug trafficking offences” substitute “two previous convictions for relevant offences”;

(b) after subsection (1) insert—

“(1A) In subsection (1), “relevant offence” means—

(a) in relation to a conviction by a court in any part of the United Kingdom, a class A drug trafficking offence;

(b) in relation to a conviction by a court in a member State of the European Union other than the United Kingdom, an offence that is equivalent to a class A drug trafficking offence.

(1B) Any issue of equivalence arising in pursuance of subsection (1A)(b) is for the court to determine.”.

7 In section 275A (disclosure of accused’s previous convictions where court allows questioning or evidence under section 275)—

(a) in subsection (10)—

(i) the word “or” immediately following paragraph (a) is repealed,

(ii) after paragraph (a) insert—

“(aa) a conviction by a court in England and Wales, Northern Ireland or a member State of the European Union other than the United Kingdom of an offence that is equivalent to one to which section 288C of this Act applies by virtue of subsection (2) thereof; or”;

(b) after subsection (10) insert—

“(10A) Any issue of equivalence arising in pursuance of subsection (10)(aa) is for the court to determine.”.

8 In section 307 (interpretation)—

(a) in subsection (1), insert the following definition at the appropriate place—

““conviction”, in relation to a previous conviction by a court outside Scotland, means a final decision of a criminal court establishing guilt of a criminal offence;”;

and

(b) for subsection (5) substitute—

“(5) Except where the context requires otherwise—

(a) any reference in this Act to a previous conviction is to be construed as a reference to a previous conviction by a court in any part of the United Kingdom or in any other member State of the European Union;

(b) any reference in this Act to a previous sentence is to be construed as a reference to a previous sentence passed by any such court;
(c) any reference to a previous conviction of a particular offence is to be construed, in relation to a previous conviction by a court outside Scotland, as a reference to a previous conviction of an equivalent offence; and

(d) any reference to a previous sentence of a particular kind is to be construed, in relation to a previous sentence passed by a court outside Scotland, as a reference to a previous sentence of an equivalent kind.”.

PART 2
OTHER ENACTMENTS

The Civic Government (Scotland) Act 1982 (c.45)
9 In section 58 of the Civic Government (Scotland) Act 1982, after subsection (4) insert—

“(4A) In subsection (4), the reference to a conviction for theft includes a reference to a conviction by a court in England and Wales, Northern Ireland or a member State of the European Union other than the United Kingdom of an offence that is equivalent to theft.

(4B) Any issue of equivalence arising in pursuance of subsection (4A) is for the court to determine.”.

The Prisoners and Criminal Proceedings (Scotland) Act 1993 (c.9)

418 After section 58, insert—

<Retention of samples etc. where offer under sections 302 to 303ZA accepted

After section 18A of the 1995 Act insert—

“18AA Retention of samples etc. where offer under sections 302 to 303ZA accepted

(1) This section applies to—

(a) relevant physical data taken from or provided by a person under section 18(2), and

(b) any sample, or any information derived from a sample, taken from a person under section 18(6) or (6A),

where the conditions in subsection (2) are satisfied.

(2) The conditions are—

(a) the relevant physical data or sample was taken from or provided by the person while the person was under arrest or being detained in connection with the offence or offences in relation to which a relevant offer is issued to the person, and

(b) the person—

(i) accepts a relevant offer, or

(ii) in the case of a relevant offer other than one of the type mentioned in paragraph (d) of subsection (3), is deemed to accept a relevant offer.

(3) In this section “relevant offer” means—

(a) a conditional offer under section 302,

(b) a compensation offer under section 302A,

(c) a combined offer under section 302B, or

(d) a work offer under section 303ZA.
Subject to subsections (6) and (7) and section 18AB(9) and (10), the relevant physical data, sample or information derived from a sample must be destroyed no later than the destruction date.

In subsection (4), “destruction date” means—

(a) in relation to a relevant offer that relates only to—

(i) a relevant sexual offence,

(ii) a relevant violent offence, or

(iii) both a relevant sexual offence and a relevant violent offence,

the date of expiry of the period of 3 years beginning with the date on which the relevant offer is issued or such later date as an order under section 18AB(2) or (6) may specify,

(b) in relation to a relevant offer that relates to—

(i) an offence or offences falling within paragraph (a), and

(ii) any other offence,

the date of expiry of the period of 3 years beginning with the date on which the relevant offer is issued or such later date as an order under section 18AB(2) or (6) may specify,

(c) in relation to a relevant offer that does not relate to an offence falling within paragraph (a), the date of expiry of the period of 2 years beginning with the date on which the relevant offer is issued.

If a relevant offer is recalled by virtue of section 302C(5) or a decision to uphold it is quashed under section 302C(7)(a), all record of the relevant physical data, sample and information derived from a sample must be destroyed as soon as possible after—

(a) the prosecutor decides not to issue a further relevant offer to the person,

(b) the prosecutor decides not to institute criminal proceedings against the person, or

(c) the prosecutor institutes criminal proceedings against the person and those proceedings conclude otherwise than with a conviction or an order under section 246(3).

If a relevant offer is set aside by virtue of section 303ZB, all record of the relevant physical data, sample and information derived from a sample must be destroyed as soon as possible after the setting aside.

In this section, “relevant sexual offence” and “relevant violent offence” have, subject to the modification in subsection (9), the same meanings as in section 19A(6) and include any attempt, conspiracy or incitement to commit such an offence.

The modification is that the definition of “relevant sexual offence” in section 19A(6) is to be read as if for paragraph (g) there were substituted—

“(g) public indecency if it is apparent from the relevant offer (as defined in section 18AA(3)) relating to the offence that there was a sexual aspect to the behaviour of the person to whom the relevant offer is issued;”.

18AB  Section 18AA: extension of retention period where relevant offer relates to certain sexual or violent offences

(1) This section applies where the destruction date for relevant physical data, a sample or information derived from a sample falls within section 18AA(5)(a) or (b).

(2) On a summary application made by the relevant chief constable within the period of 3 months before the destruction date, the sheriff may, if satisfied that there are reasonable grounds for doing so, make an order amending, or further amending, the destruction date.

(3) An application under subsection (2) may be made to any sheriff—
   (a) in whose sheriffdom the appropriate person resides,
   (b) in whose sheriffdom that person is believed by the applicant to be, or
   (c) to whose sheriffdom the person is believed by the applicant to be intending to come.

(4) An order under subsection (2) must not specify a destruction date more than 2 years later than the previous destruction date.

(5) The decision of the sheriff on an application under subsection (2) may be appealed to the sheriff principal within 21 days of the decision.

(6) If the sheriff principal allows an appeal against the refusal of an application under subsection (2), the sheriff principal may make an order amending, or further amending, the destruction date.

(7) An order under subsection (6) must not specify a destruction date more than 2 years later than the previous destruction date.

(8) The sheriff principal’s decision on an appeal under subsection (5) is final.

(9) Section 18AA(4) does not apply where—
   (a) an application under subsection (2) has been made but has not been determined,
   (b) the period within which an appeal may be brought under subsection (5) against a decision to refuse an application has not elapsed, or
   (c) such an appeal has been brought but has not been withdrawn or finally determined.

(10) Where—
   (a) the period within which an appeal referred to in subsection (9)(b) may be brought has elapsed without such an appeal being brought,
   (b) such an appeal is brought and is withdrawn or finally determined against the appellant, or
   (c) an appeal brought under subsection (5) against a decision to grant an application is determined in favour of the appellant, the relevant physical data, sample or information derived from a sample must be destroyed as soon as possible after the period has elapsed, or, as the case may be, the appeal is withdrawn or determined.

(11) In this section—
“appropriate person” means the person from whom the relevant physical data was taken or by whom it was provided or from whom the sample was taken,

“destruction date” has the meaning given by section 18AA(5),

“the relevant chief constable” has the same meaning as in subsection (11) of section 18A, with the modification that references to the person referred to in subsection (2) of that section are references to the appropriate person.”.

419 After section 58, insert—

<Retention of samples etc. taken or provided in connection with certain fixed penalty offences

After section 18A of the 1995 Act insert—

“18AC Retention of samples etc. taken or provided in connection with certain fixed penalty offences

(1) This section applies to—

(a) relevant physical data taken from or provided by a person under section 18(2), and

(b) any sample, or any information derived from a sample, taken from a person under section 18(6) or (6A),

where the conditions in subsection (2) are satisfied.

(2) The conditions are—

(a) the person was arrested or detained in connection with a fixed penalty offence,

(b) the relevant physical data or sample was taken from or provided by the person while the person was under arrest or being detained in connection with that offence,

(c) after the relevant physical data or sample was taken from or provided by the person, a constable gave the person under section 129(1) of the 2004 Act—

(i) a fixed penalty notice in respect of that offence (the “main FPN”), or

(ii) the main FPN and one or more other fixed penalty notices in respect of fixed penalty offences arising out of the same circumstances as the offence to which the main FPN relates, and

(d) the person, in relation to the main FPN and any other fixed penalty notice of the type mentioned in paragraph (c)(ii)—

(i) pays the fixed penalty, or

(ii) pays any sum that the person is liable to pay by virtue of section 131(5) of the 2004 Act.

20
(3) Subject to subsections (4) and (5), the relevant physical data, sample or information derived from a sample must be destroyed before the end of the period of 2 years beginning with—

(a) where subsection (2)(c)(i) applies, the day on which the main FPN is given to the person,

(b) where subsection (2)(c)(ii) applies and—

(i) the main FPN and any other fixed penalty notice are given to the person on the same day, that day,

(ii) the main FPN and any other fixed penalty notice are given to the person on different days, the later day.

(4) Where—

(a) subsection (2)(c)(i) applies, and

(b) the main FPN is revoked under section 133(1) of the 2004 Act, the relevant physical data, sample or information derived from a sample must be destroyed as soon as possible after the revocation.

(5) Where—

(a) subsection (2)(c)(ii) applies, and

(b) the main FPN and any other fixed penalty notices are revoked under section 133(1) of the 2004 Act, the relevant physical data, sample or information derived from a sample must be destroyed as soon as possible after the revocations.

(6) In this section—

“the 2004 Act” means the Antisocial Behaviour etc. (Scotland) Act 2004 (asp 8),

“fixed penalty notice” has the meaning given by section 129(2) of the 2004 Act, “fixed penalty offence” has the meaning given by section 128(1) of the 2004 Act.”.

Rehabilitation of offenders

Spent alternatives to prosecution: Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974

(1) The Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (c.53) is amended as follows.

(2) After section 8A (protection afforded to spent cautions), insert—

“8B Protection afforded to spent alternatives to prosecution: Scotland

(1) For the purposes of this Act, a person has been given an alternative to prosecution in respect of an offence if the person (whether before or after the commencement of this section)—

(a) has been given a warning in respect of the offence by—

(i) a constable in Scotland, or

(ii) a procurator fiscal,

(b) has accepted, or is deemed to have accepted—

(i) a conditional offer issued in respect of the offence under section 302 of the Criminal Procedure (Scotland) Act 1995 (c.46), or

(ii) a compensation offer issued in respect of the offence under section 302A of that Act,

(c) has had a work order made against the person in respect of the offence under section 303ZA of that Act,

(d) has been given a fixed penalty notice in respect of the offence under section 129 of the Antisocial Behaviour etc. (Scotland) Act 2004 (asp 8),

(e) has accepted an offer made by a procurator fiscal in respect of the offence to undertake an activity or treatment or to receive services or do any other thing as an alternative to prosecution, or

(f) in respect of an offence under the law of a country or territory outside Scotland, has been given, or has accepted or is deemed to have accepted, anything corresponding to a warning, offer, order or notice falling within paragraphs (a) to (e) under the law of that country or territory.

(2) In this Act, references to an “alternative to prosecution” are to be read in accordance with subsection (1).

(3) Schedule 3 to this Act (protection for spent alternatives to prosecution: Scotland) has effect.”.

37
(b) “relevant information” means information imputing that a named or otherwise identifiable living person has committed, been charged with, prosecuted for or given an alternative to prosecution in respect of an offence which is the subject of an alternative to prosecution which has become spent,

(c) “subject of the information”, in relation to relevant information, means the named or otherwise identifiable living person to whom the information relates.

(2) Subsection (3) applies to a person who, in the course of the person’s official duties (anywhere in the United Kingdom), has or has had custody of or access to an official record or the information contained in an official record.

(3) The person commits an offence if the person—

(a) obtains relevant information in the course of the person’s official duties,

(b) knows or has reasonable cause to suspect that the information is relevant information, and

(c) discloses the information to another person otherwise than in the course of the person’s official duties.

(4) Subsection (3) is subject to the terms of an order under subsection (6).

(5) In proceedings for an offence under subsection (3), it is a defence for the accused to show that the disclosure was made—

(a) to the subject of the information or to a person whom the accused reasonably believed to be the subject of the information, or

(b) to another person at the express request of the subject of the information or of a person whom the accused reasonably believed to be the subject of the information.

(6) The Scottish Ministers may by order provide for the disclosure of relevant information derived from an official record to be excepted from the provisions of subsection (3) in cases or classes of cases specified in the order.

(7) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (3) is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 4 on the standard scale.

(8) A person commits an offence if the person obtains relevant information from an official record by means of fraud, dishonesty or bribery.

(9) A person guilty of an offence under subsection (8) is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 5 on the standard scale, or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 6 months, or to both.”.

(4) After Schedule 2 (protection for spent convictions) insert—

“SCHEDULE 3

PROTECTION FOR SPENT ALTERNATIVES TO PROSECUTION: SCOTLAND

Preliminary

1 (1) For the purposes of this Act, an alternative to prosecution given to any person (whether before or after the commencement of this Schedule) becomes spent—

(a) in the case of—
(i) a warning referred to in paragraph (a) of subsection (1) of section 8B, or
(ii) a fixed penalty notice referred to in paragraph (d) of that subsection, at the time the warning or notice is given,

(b) in any other case, at the end of the relevant period.

(2) The relevant period in relation to an alternative to prosecution is the period of 3 months beginning on the day on which the alternative to prosecution is given.

(3) Sub-paragraph (1)(a) is subject to sub-paragraph (5).

(4) Sub-paragraph (2) is subject to sub-paragraph (6).

(5) If a person who is given a fixed penalty notice referred to in section 8B(1)(d) in respect of an offence is subsequently prosecuted and convicted of the offence, the notice—

(a) becomes spent at the end of the rehabilitation period for the offence, and
(b) is to be treated as not having become spent in relation to any period before the end of that rehabilitation period.

(6) If a person who is given an alternative to prosecution (other than one to which sub-paragraph (1)(a) applies) in respect of an offence is subsequently prosecuted and convicted of the offence—

(a) the relevant period in relation to the alternative to prosecution ends at the same time as the rehabilitation period for the offence ends, and
(b) if the conviction occurs after the end of the period referred to sub-paragraph (2), the alternative to prosecution is to be treated as not having become spent in relation to any period before the end of the rehabilitation period for the offence.

2 (1) In this Schedule, “ancillary circumstances”, in relation to an alternative to prosecution, means any circumstances of the following—

(a) the offence in respect of which the alternative to prosecution is given or the conduct constituting the offence,
(b) any process preliminary to the alternative to prosecution being given (including consideration by any person of how to deal with the offence and the procedure for giving the alternative to prosecution),
(c) any proceedings for the offence which took place before the alternative to prosecution was given (including anything that happens after that time for the purpose of bringing the proceedings to an end),
(d) any judicial review proceedings relating to the alternative to prosecution,
(e) in the case of an offer referred to in paragraph (e) of subsection (1) of section 8B, anything done or undergone in pursuance of the terms of the offer.

(2) Where an alternative to prosecution is given in respect of two or more offences, references in sub-paragraph (1) to the offence in respect of which the alternative to prosecution is given includes a reference to each of the offences.
(3) In this Schedule, “proceedings before a judicial authority” has the same meaning as in section 4.

Protection for spent alternatives to prosecution and ancillary circumstances

3 (1) A person who is given an alternative to prosecution in respect of an offence is, from the time the alternative to prosecution becomes spent, to be treated for all purposes in law as a person who has not committed, been charged with or prosecuted for, or been given an alternative to prosecution in respect of, the offence.

(2) Despite any enactment or rule of law to the contrary—
   (a) where an alternative to prosecution given to a person in respect of an offence has become spent, evidence is not admissible in any proceedings before a judicial authority exercising its jurisdiction or functions in Scotland to prove that the person has committed, been charged with or prosecuted for, or been given an alternative to prosecution in respect of, the offence,
   (b) a person must not, in any such proceedings, be asked any question relating to the person’s past which cannot be answered without acknowledging or referring to an alternative to prosecution that has become spent or any ancillary circumstances, and
   (c) if a person is asked such a question in any such proceedings, the person is not required to answer it.

(3) Sub-paragraphs (1) and (2) do not apply in relation to any proceedings—
   (a) for the offence in respect of which the alternative to prosecution was given, and
   (b) which are not part of the ancillary circumstances.

4 (1) This paragraph applies where a person (“A”) is asked a question, otherwise than in proceedings before a judicial authority, seeking information about—
   (a) A’s or another person’s previous conduct or circumstances,
   (b) offences previously committed by A or the other person, or
   (c) alternatives to prosecution previously given to A or the other person.

(2) The question is to be treated as not relating to alternatives to prosecution that have become spent or to any ancillary circumstances and may be answered accordingly.

(3) A is not to be subjected to any liability or otherwise prejudiced in law because of a failure to acknowledge or disclose an alternative to prosecution that has become spent or any ancillary circumstances in answering the question.

5 (1) An obligation imposed on a person (“A”) by a rule of law or by the provisions of an agreement or arrangement to disclose any matter to another person does not extend to requiring A to disclose an alternative to prosecution (whether one given to A or another person) that has become spent or any ancillary circumstances.
An alternative to prosecution that has become spent or any ancillary circumstances, or any failure to disclose an alternative to prosecution that has become spent or any ancillary circumstances, is not a ground for dismissing or excluding a person from any office, profession, occupation or employment, or for prejudicing the person in any way in any occupation or employment.

The Scottish Ministers may by order—

(a) exclude or modify the application of any of paragraphs (a) to (c) of paragraph 3(2) in relation to questions put in such circumstances as may be specified in the order,

(b) provide for exceptions from any of the provisions of paragraphs 4 and 5 in such cases or classes of case, or in relation to alternatives to prosecution of such descriptions, as may be specified in the order.

Paragraphs 3 to 5 do not affect—

(a) the operation of an alternative to prosecution, or

(b) the operation of an enactment by virtue of which, because of an alternative to prosecution, a person is subject to a disqualification, disability, prohibition or other restriction or effect for a period extending beyond the time at which the alternative to prosecution becomes spent.

Section 7(2), (3) and (4) apply for the purpose of this Schedule as follows.

Subsection (2), apart from paragraphs (b) and (d), applies to the determination of any issue, and the admission or requirement of evidence, relating to alternatives to prosecution previously given to a person and to ancillary circumstances as it applies to matters relating to a person’s previous convictions and circumstances ancillary thereto.

Subsection (3) applies to evidence of alternatives to prosecution previously given to a person and ancillary circumstances as it applies to evidence of a person’s previous convictions and the circumstances ancillary thereto.

For that purpose, subsection (3) has effect as if—

(a) a reference to subsection (2) or (4) of section 7 were a reference to that subsection as applied by this paragraph, and

(b) the words “or proceedings to which section 8 below applies” were omitted.

Subsection (4) applies for the purpose of excluding the application of paragraph 3.

For that purpose, subsection (4) has effect as if the words “(other than proceedings to which section 8 below applies)” were omitted.

References in the provisions applied by this paragraph to section 4(1) are to be read as references to paragraph 3.”

Medical services in prisons

(1) For section 3A of the Prisons (Scotland) Act 1989 (c.45) (medical services in prisons) substitute—

“3A Medical officers for prisons

(1) The Scottish Ministers must designate one or more medical officers for each prison.

(2) A person may be designated as a medical officer for a prison only if the person is a registered medical practitioner performing primary medical services for prisoners at the prison under the National Health Service (Scotland) Act 1978 (c.29).

(3) A medical officer has the functions that are conferred on a medical officer for a prison by or under this Act or any other enactment.

(4) A medical officer is not an officer of the prison for the purposes of this Act.

(5) Rules under section 39 of this Act may provide for the governor of a prison to authorise the carrying out by officers of the prison of a search of any person who is in, or is seeking to enter, the prison for the purpose of providing medical services for any prisoner at the prison.

(6) Nothing in rules made by virtue of subsection (5) allows the governor to authorise an officer of a prison to require a person to remove any of the person’s clothing other than an outer coat, jacket, headgear, gloves and footwear.”.

(2) In section 41D of that Act (unlawful disclosure of information by medical officers), for subsection (1) substitute—

<Court rulings on disclosure>

Application by accused for ruling on disclosure

(1) This section applies where the accused—
(a) has lodged a defence statement under section 70A of the 1995 Act or section 95 or Change in circumstances following lodging of defence statement: summary proceedings) of this Act, and

(b) considers that the prosecutor has failed, in responding to the statement, to disclose to the accused an item of information to which section 89(3) applies (the “information in question”).

(2) The accused may apply to the court for a ruling on whether section 89(3) applies to the information in question.

(3) An application under subsection (2) is to be made in writing and must set out—

(a) where the accused is charged with more than one offence, the charge or charges to which the application relates,

(b) a description of the information in question, and

(c) the accused’s grounds for considering that section 89(3) applies to the information in question.

(4) On receiving an application under subsection (2), the court must appoint a hearing at which the application is to be considered and determined.

(5) However, the court may dispose of the application without appointing a hearing if the court considers that the application does not—

(a) comply with subsection (3), or

(b) otherwise disclose any reasonable grounds for considering that section 89(3) applies to the information in question.

(6) At a hearing appointed under subsection (4), the court must give the prosecutor and the accused an opportunity to be heard before determining the application.

(7) On determining the application, the court must—

(a) make a ruling on whether section 89(3) applies to the information in question or to any part of the information in question, and

(b) where the accused is charged with more than one offence, specify the charge or charges to which the ruling relates.

(8) Except where it is impracticable to do so, the application is to be assigned to the justice of the peace, sheriff or judge who is presiding, or is to preside, at the accused’s trial.

Kenny MacAskill

604 After section 95, insert—

<Review of ruling under section (Application by accused for ruling on disclosure)

(1) This section applies where—

(a) the court has made a ruling under section (Application by accused for ruling on disclosure) that section 89(3) does not apply to an item of information (the “information in question”), and

(b) during the relevant period—

(i) the accused becomes aware of information (the “secondary information”) that was unavailable to the court at the time it made its ruling, and
(ii) the accused considers that, had the secondary information been available to the court at that time, it would have made a ruling that section 89(3) does apply to the information in question.

(2) The accused may apply to the court which made the ruling for a review of the ruling.

(3) An application under subsection (2) is to be made in writing and must set out—
   (a) where the accused is charged with more than one offence, the charge or charges to which the application relates,
   (b) a description of the information in question and the secondary information, and
   (c) the accused’s grounds for considering that section 89(3) applies to the information in question.

(4) On receiving an application under subsection (2), the court must appoint a hearing at which the application is to be considered and determined.

(5) However, the court may dispose of the application without appointing a hearing if the court considers that the application does not—
   (a) comply with subsection (3), or
   (b) otherwise disclose any reasonable grounds for considering that section 89(3) applies to the information in question.

(6) At a hearing appointed under subsection (4), the court must give the prosecutor and the accused an opportunity to be heard before determining the application.

(7) On determining the application, the court may—
   (a) affirm the ruling being reviewed, or
   (b) recall that ruling and—
      (i) make a ruling that section 89(3) applies to the information in question or to any part of the information in question, and
      (ii) where the accused is charged with more than one offence, specify the charge or charges to which the ruling relates.

(8) Except where it is impracticable to do so, the application is to be assigned to the justice of the peace, sheriff or judge who dealt with the application for the ruling that is being reviewed.

(9) Nothing in this section affects any right of appeal in relation to the ruling being reviewed.

(10) In this section, “relevant period”, in relation to an accused, means the period—
   (a) beginning with the making of the ruling being reviewed, and
   (b) ending with the conclusion of proceedings against the accused.

(11) For the purposes of subsection (10), proceedings against the accused are taken to be concluded if—
   (a) a plea of guilty is recorded against the accused,
   (b) the accused is acquitted,
   (c) the proceedings against the accused are deserted simpliciter,
   (d) the accused is convicted and does not appeal against the conviction before expiry of the time allowed for such an appeal,
(e) the proceedings are deserted pro loco et tempore for any reason and no further trial diet is appointed, or

(f) the indictment or complaint falls or is for any other reason not brought to trial, the diet is not continued, adjourned or postponed and no further proceedings are in contemplation.

Kenny MacAskill

605 After section 95, insert—

Appeals against rulings under section (Application by accused for ruling on disclosure)

(1) The prosecutor or the accused may, within the period of 7 days beginning with the day on which a ruling is made under section (Application by accused for ruling on disclosure), appeal to the High Court against the ruling.

(2) Where an appeal is brought under subsection (1), the court of first instance or the High Court may—

(a) postpone any trial diet that has been appointed for such period as it thinks appropriate,

(b) adjourn or further adjourn any hearing for such period as it thinks appropriate,

(c) direct that any period of postponement or adjournment under paragraph (a) or (b) or any part of such period is not to count toward any time limit applying in the case.

(3) In disposing of an appeal under subsection (1), the High Court may—

(a) affirm the ruling, or

(b) remit the case back to the court of first instance with such directions as the High Court thinks appropriate.

(4) This section does not affect any other right of appeal which any party may have in relation to a ruling under section (Application by accused for ruling on disclosure).

Disclosure after conclusion of proceedings at first instance

Sections (Duty to disclose after conclusion of proceedings at first instance) to (Review of ruling under section (Application by appellant for ruling on disclosure)): interpretation

In sections (Duty to disclose after conclusion of proceedings at first instance) to (Review of ruling under section (Application by appellant for ruling on disclosure))—

“appellant”, in relation to appellate proceedings, includes a person authorised by an order under section 303A(4) of the 1995 Act to institute or continue the proceedings,

“appellate proceedings” means—

(a) an appeal under section 106(1)(a) or (f) of the 1995 Act which brings under review an alleged miscarriage of justice,

(b) an appeal under paragraph (b), (ba), (bb), (c), (d), (db) or (dc) of subsection (1) of section 106 of the 1995 Act which brings under review in accordance with subsection (3)(a) of that section an alleged miscarriage of justice,

(c) an appeal under section 175(2)(a) or (d) of the 1995 Act which brings under review an alleged miscarriage of justice,

(d) an appeal under paragraph (b), (c) or (cb) of subsection (2) of section 175 of the 1995 Act which brings under review an alleged miscarriage of justice which is based on the type of miscarriage described in subsection (5) of that section,

(e) an appeal to the Supreme Court against a determination by the High Court of Justiciary of a devolution issue,

(f) an appeal against conviction by bill of suspension under section 191(1) of the 1995 Act,

(g) an appeal against conviction by bill of advocation,

(h) a petition to the nobile officium in respect of a matter arising out of criminal proceedings which brings under review an alleged miscarriage of justice which is based on the existence and significance of new evidence,

(i) an appeal under section 62(1)(b) of the 1995 Act against a finding under section 55(2) of that Act,

(j) the referral to the High Court of Justiciary under section 194B of the 1995 Act of—

(i) a conviction, or

(ii) a finding under section 55(2) of that Act.

Kenny MacAskill

609* After section 96, insert—
Duty to disclose after conclusion of proceedings at first instance

(1) This section applies where appellate proceedings are instituted in relation to an appellant.

(2) As soon as practicable after the relevant act the prosecutor must—

   (a) review all information of which the prosecutor is aware that relates to the grounds of appeal in the appellate proceedings, and

   (b) disclose to the appellant any information that falls within subsection (3).

(3) Information falls within this subsection if it is—

   (a) information that the prosecutor was required by virtue of section 89(2)(b) or 90(2)(b) to disclose in the earlier proceedings but did not disclose,

   (b) information to which, during the earlier proceedings, the prosecutor considered paragraph (a) or (b) of section 89(3) did not apply but to which the prosecutor now considers one or both of those paragraphs would apply, or

   (c) information of which the prosecutor has become aware since the disposal of the earlier proceedings that, had the prosecutor been aware of it during those proceedings, the prosecutor would have been required to disclose by virtue of section 89(2)(b) or 90(2)(b).

(4) The prosecutor need not disclose under subsection (2) anything that the prosecutor has already disclosed to the appellant.

(5) In this section—

   “earlier proceedings”, in relation to appellate proceedings, means the proceedings to which the appellate proceedings relate,

   “relevant act” means—

   (a) in relation to proceedings of the type mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) of the relevant definition, the granting under section 107(1)(a) of the 1995 Act of leave to appeal,

   (b) in relation to proceedings of the type mentioned in paragraph (c) or (d) of the relevant definition, the granting under section 180(1)(a) or, as the case may be, 187(1)(a) of that Act of leave to appeal,

   (c) in relation to proceedings of the type mentioned in paragraph (e) of the relevant definition, the granting of leave to appeal by the High Court of Justiciary or, as the case may be, the Supreme Court,

   (d) in relation to proceedings of the type mentioned in paragraph (f) of the relevant definition—

   (i) if leave to appeal is required, the granting under section 191(2) of that Act of leave to appeal,

   (ii) if leave to appeal is not required, service on the prosecutor under the relevant rule of a certified copy of the bill of suspension and the interlocutor granting first order for service,

   (e) in relation to proceedings of the type mentioned in paragraph (g) of the relevant definition, service on the prosecutor under the relevant rule of a certified copy of the bill of advocation and the interlocutor granting first order for service,
(f) in relation to proceedings of the type mentioned in paragraph (h) of the relevant definition, service on the prosecutor under the relevant rule of a certified copy of the petition and the interlocutor granting first order for service,

(g) in relation to proceedings of the type mentioned in paragraph (i) of the relevant definition, the lodging of the appeal,

(h) in relation to proceedings of the type mentioned in paragraph (j) of the relevant definition, the lodging of the grounds of appeal by the person to whom the referral relates,

“relevant definition” means the definition of appellate proceedings in section (Sections (Duty to disclose after conclusion of proceedings at first instance) to (Review of ruling under section (Application by appellant for ruling on disclosure)): interpretation),

Kenny MacAskill

610 After section 96, insert—

<Continuing duty of prosecutor

(1) This section applies where the prosecutor has complied with section (Duty to disclose after conclusion of proceedings at first instance)(2) in relation to an appellant.

(2) During the relevant period, the prosecutor must—

(a) from time to time review all information of which the prosecutor is aware that relates to the grounds of appeal in the appellate proceedings which relate to the appellant, and

(b) disclose to the appellant any information that falls within section (Duty to disclose after conclusion of proceedings at first instance)(3).

(3) The prosecutor need not disclose under subsection (2) anything that the prosecutor has already disclosed to the appellant.

(4) In subsection (2), “relevant period” means the period—

(a) beginning with the prosecutor’s compliance with section (Duty to disclose after conclusion of proceedings at first instance)(2), and

(b) ending with the relevant conclusion.

(5) In subsection (4), “relevant conclusion” means—

(a) in relation to proceedings of the type mentioned in paragraph (a) or (b) of the relevant definition—

(i) the lodging under section 116(1) of the 1995 Act of a notice of abandonment, or

(ii) the disposal of the appeal under section 118 of that Act,

(b) in relation to proceedings of the type mentioned in paragraph (c) or (d) of the relevant definition—

(i) the disposal of the appeal under section 183(1)(b) to (d) of that Act,
(ii) the abandonment of the appeal under section 184(1) of that Act,
(iii) the setting aside of the conviction or sentence or, as the case may be, conviction and sentence under section 188(1) of that Act, or
(iv) the disposal of the appeal under section 190(1) of that Act,
(c) in relation to proceedings of the type mentioned in paragraph (e), (f), (g) or (h) of the relevant definition, the disposal or abandonment of the appeal,
(d) in relation to proceedings of the type mentioned in paragraph (i) of the relevant definition, the disposal of the appeal under section 62(6) of that Act or the abandonment of the appeal,
(e) in relation to proceedings of the type mentioned in paragraph (j) of the relevant definition—
   (i) if the referral or finding is being treated as if it were an appeal under Part 8 of that Act, the conclusion mentioned in paragraph (a) above,
   (ii) if the referral or finding is being treated as if it were an appeal under Part 10 of that Act, the conclusion mentioned in paragraph (b) above or, where the referral or finding proceeds by way of bill of suspension, bill of advocation or petition to the nobile officium, paragraph (c) above.

(6) In this section, “relevant definition” has the meaning given by section (Duty to disclose after conclusion of proceedings at first instance)(5).

Kenny MacAskill

611 After section 96, insert—

<Application to prosecutor for further disclosure

(1) This section applies where—
   (a) the prosecutor has complied with section (Duty to disclose after conclusion of proceedings at first instance)(2) in relation to an appellant, and
   (b) the appellant lodges a further disclosure request—
      (i) during the preliminary period, or
      (ii) if the court on cause shown allows it, after the preliminary period but before the relevant conclusion.

(2) A further disclosure request must set out—
   (a) by reference to the grounds of appeal, the nature of the information that the appellant wishes the prosecutor to disclose, and
   (b) the reasons why the appellant considers that disclosure by the prosecutor of any such information is necessary.

(3) As soon as practicable after receiving a copy of the further disclosure request the prosecutor must—
   (a) review any information of which the prosecutor is aware that relates to the request, and
   (b) disclose to the appellant any of that information that falls within section (Duty to disclose after conclusion of proceedings at first instance)(3).

(4) In this section—

59
“preliminary period”, in relation to the appellate proceedings concerned, means the period beginning with the relevant act and ending with the beginning of the hearing of the appellate proceedings,

“relevant act” has the meaning given by section (Duty to disclose after conclusion of proceedings at first instance)(5),

“relevant conclusion” has the meaning given by section (Continuing duty of prosecutor)(5).

Kenny MacAskill

612 After section 96, insert—

<Further duty of prosecutor: conviction upheld on appeal

(1) This section applies where—

(a) in an appeal to the High Court of Justiciary, the High Court upholds the conviction of a person, and

(b) after the conclusion of the appeal the prosecutor becomes aware of—

(i) information that the prosecutor was required by virtue of section 89(2)(b) or 90(2)(b) to disclose in the earlier proceedings but did not disclose, or

(ii) information that falls within section (Duty to disclose after conclusion of proceedings at first instance)(3) which would have related to the grounds of appeal but was not disclosed.

(2) As soon as practicable after becoming aware of the information the prosecutor must disclose it to the person.

(3) The prosecutor need not disclose under subsection (2) anything that the prosecutor has already disclosed to the person.

(4) Nothing in this section requires the prosecutor to carry out a review of information of which the prosecutor is aware.

(5) In this section, “earlier proceedings” has the meaning given by section (Duty to disclose after conclusion of proceedings at first instance)(5).

Kenny MacAskill

613 After section 96, insert—

<Further duty of prosecutor: convicted persons

(1) This section applies where—

(a) a person has been convicted,

(b) after conviction the prosecutor becomes aware of information that the prosecutor was required by virtue of section 89(2)(b) or 90(2)(b) to disclose in the earlier proceedings but did not disclose, and

(c) section (Further duty of prosecutor: conviction upheld on appeal) does not apply.

(2) As soon as practicable after becoming aware of the information the prosecutor must disclose it to the person.

(3) If the person institutes appellate proceedings in relation to the conviction, the prosecutor need not comply with the duty imposed by subsection (2) during the appropriate period.
(4) The prosecutor need not disclose under subsection (2) anything that the prosecutor has already disclosed to the person.

(5) Nothing in this section requires the prosecutor to carry out a review of information of which the prosecutor is aware.

(6) In this section—

“appropriate period”, in relation to appellate proceedings, means the period beginning with the relevant act and ending with the relevant conclusion,

“earlier proceedings” has the meaning given by section (Duty to disclose after conclusion of proceedings at first instance)(5),

“relevant act” has the meaning given by section (Duty to disclose after conclusion of proceedings at first instance)(5),

“relevant conclusion” has the meaning given by section (Continuing duty of prosecutor)(5).

Kenny MacAskill

614 After section 96, insert—

<Further duty of prosecutor: appeal against acquittal

(1) This section applies where—

(a) the prosecutor appeals against the acquittal of a person, and

(b) after lodging the appeal the prosecutor becomes aware of information which relates to the appeal and falls within section (Duty to disclose after conclusion of proceedings at first instance)(3).

(2) As soon as practicable after becoming aware of the information the prosecutor must disclose it to the person.

(3) The prosecutor need not disclose under subsection (2) anything that the prosecutor has already disclosed to the person.

(4) The prosecutor ceases to be subject to the duty imposed by subsection (2) on the disposal of the appeal by the High Court of Justiciary.

(5) Nothing in this section requires the prosecutor to carry out a review of information of which the prosecutor is aware.

Kenny MacAskill

615 After section 96, insert—

<Court rulings on disclosure: appellate proceedings

Application by appellant for ruling on disclosure

(1) This section applies where the appellant—

(a) has made a further disclosure request under section (Application to prosecutor for further disclosure), and

(b) considers that the prosecutor has failed, in responding to the request, to disclose to the appellant an item of information falling within section (Duty to disclose after conclusion of proceedings at first instance)(3) (the “information in question”).
The appellant may apply to the court for a ruling on whether the information in question falls within section (Duty to disclose after conclusion of proceedings at first instance)(3).

An application under subsection (2) is to be made in writing and must set out—
(a) where the appellant is or was charged with more than one offence, the charge or charges to which the application relates,
(b) a description of the information in question, and
(c) the appellant’s grounds for considering that the information in question falls within section (Duty to disclose after conclusion of proceedings at first instance)(3).

On receiving an application under subsection (2), the court must appoint a hearing at which the application is to be considered and determined.

However, the court may dispose of the application without appointing a hearing if the court considers that the application does not—
(a) comply with subsection (3), or
(b) otherwise disclose any reasonable grounds for considering that the information in question falls within section (Duty to disclose after conclusion of proceedings at first instance)(3).

At a hearing appointed under subsection (4), the court must give the prosecutor and the appellant an opportunity to be heard before determining the application.

On determining the application, the court must—
(a) make a ruling on whether the information in question, or any part of the information in question, falls within section (Duty to disclose after conclusion of proceedings at first instance)(3), and
(b) where the appellant is or was charged with more than one offence, specify the charge or charges to which the ruling relates.

In this section, “the court” means the court before which the appellant’s appeal is brought.

Except where it is impracticable to do so, the application is to be assigned to the judges who are to hear the appellant’s appeal.

Kenny MacAskill

616 After section 96, insert—

<Review of ruling under section (Application by appellant for ruling on disclosure)

This section applies where—
(a) the court has made a ruling under section (Application by appellant for ruling on disclosure) that an item of information (the “information in question”) does not fall within section (Duty to disclose after conclusion of proceedings at first instance)(3), and
(b) during the relevant period—
(i) the appellant becomes aware of information (“secondary information”) that was unavailable to the court at the time it made its ruling, and
(ii) the appellant considers that, had the secondary information been available to the court at that time, it would have made a ruling that the information in question does fall within section (Duty to disclose after conclusion of proceedings at first instance)(3).

(2) The appellant may apply to the court which made the ruling for a review of the ruling.

(3) An application under subsection (2) is to be made in writing and must set out—
   (a) where the appellant is or was charged with more than one offence, the charge or charges to which the application relates,
   (b) a description of the information in question and the secondary information, and
   (c) the appellant’s grounds for considering that the information in question falls within section (Duty to disclose after conclusion of proceedings at first instance)(3).

(4) On receiving an application under subsection (2), the court must appoint a hearing at which the application is to be considered and determined.

(5) However, the court may dispose of the application without appointing a hearing if the court considers that the application does not—
   (a) comply with subsection (3), or
   (b) otherwise disclose any reasonable grounds for considering that the information in question falls within section (Duty to disclose after conclusion of proceedings at first instance)(3).

(6) At a hearing appointed under subsection (4), the court must give the prosecutor and the appellant an opportunity to be heard before determining the application.

(7) On determining the application, the court may—
   (a) affirm the ruling being reviewed, or
   (b) recall that ruling and—
      (i) make a ruling that the information in question, or any part of the information in question, falls within section (Duty to disclose after conclusion of proceedings at first instance)(3), and
      (ii) where the appellant is or was charged with more than one offence, specify the charge or charges to which the ruling relates.

(8) Except where it is impracticable to do so, the application is to be assigned to the judges who dealt with the application for the ruling that is being reviewed.

(9) Nothing in this section affects any right of appeal in relation to the ruling being reviewed.

(10) In this section, “relevant period”, in relation to an appellant, means the period—
    (a) beginning with the making of the ruling being reviewed, and
    (b) ending with the relevant conclusion.

(11) In subsection (10), “relevant conclusion” has the meaning given by section (Continuing duty of prosecutor)(5).>

<Orders preventing or restricting disclosure: Secretary of State

Order preventing or restricting disclosure: application by Secretary of State

(1) The Secretary of State may apply to the relevant court for an order under this section (a “section (Order preventing or restricting disclosure: application by Secretary of State) order”) in relation to the proposed disclosure by the prosecutor to the accused in relevant criminal proceedings of information which the prosecutor—

(a) is required to disclose by virtue of section 89(2)(b), 90(2)(b), 94(1A)(b), 95(3)(b) or (Change in circumstances following lodging of defence statement: summary proceedings)(6)(b), or

(b) intends to disclose otherwise than by virtue of this Part.

(2) If the Secretary of State also makes an application in accordance with subsection (2) or (3) of section (Application for ancillary orders: Secretary of State), the relevant court must comply with subsections (6) and (7) of that section.

(3) Where an application is made under subsection (1), the relevant court must—

(a) consider the item of information to which the application relates,

(b) give the Secretary of State and the prosecutor the opportunity to be heard,

(c) if the application relates to information which the prosecutor is required to disclose by virtue of section 89(2)(b), 90(2)(b), 94(1A)(b), 95(3)(b) or (Change in circumstances following lodging of defence statement: summary proceedings)(6)(b) and a non-attendance order has not been made, give the accused the opportunity to be heard, and

(d) determine—

(i) whether the conditions in subsection (4) apply, and

(ii) if so, whether subsection (5) applies.

(4) The conditions are—

(a) that if the item of information were to be disclosed there would be a real risk of substantial harm or damage to the public interest,

(b) that withholding the item of information would be consistent with the accused’s receiving a fair trial, and

(c) that the public interest would be protected only if a section (Order preventing or restricting disclosure: application by Secretary of State) order of the type mentioned in subsection (6) were to be made.

(5) This subsection applies if the court considers that the item of information could be disclosed or partly disclosed in such a way that—

(a) the condition in paragraph (a) of subsection (4) would not be met, and
(b) the disclosure (or partial disclosure) would be consistent with the accused’s receiving a fair trial.

(6) If the court considers that subsection (4) (but not subsection (5)) applies, it may make a section (Order preventing or restricting disclosure: application by Secretary of State) order preventing disclosure of the information.

(7) If the court considers that subsection (5) applies, it may make a section (Order preventing or restricting disclosure: application by Secretary of State) order requiring the information to be disclosed or partly disclosed to the accused in the manner specified in the order.

(8) For the purposes of subsection (7) the order may in particular specify that—
   (a) the item of information be disclosed after removing or obscuring parts of it (whether by redaction or otherwise),
   (b) extracts or summaries of the item of information (or part of it) be disclosed instead of the item of information.

(9) If an application is made under this section the relevant criminal proceedings must be adjourned until the application is disposed of or withdrawn.

(10) In this section and sections (Application for ancillary orders: Secretary of State) to (Application for non-attendance order)—
   “relevant court” means the court before which relevant criminal proceedings are taking place,
   “relevant criminal proceedings” means criminal proceedings relating to the item of information to which the application under this section relates.

Kenny MacAskill

654 After section 106, insert—

<Application for ancillary orders: Secretary of State>

(1) This section applies where the Secretary of State applies for a section (Order preventing or restricting disclosure: application by Secretary of State) order.

(2) If the application under section (Order preventing or restricting disclosure: application by Secretary of State) relates to solemn proceedings, the Secretary of State may also apply to the relevant court for—
   (a) a restricted notification order and a non-attendance order, or
   (b) a non-attendance order (but not a restricted notification order).

(3) If the application under section (Order preventing or restricting disclosure: application by Secretary of State) relates to summary proceedings, the Secretary of State may also apply to the court for a non-attendance order.

(4) A restricted notification order is an order under section (Application for restricted notification order and non-attendance order) prohibiting notice being given to the accused of—
   (a) the making of an application for—
      (i) the section (Order preventing or restricting disclosure: application by Secretary of State) order to which the restricted notification order relates,
      (ii) the restricted notification order, and
(iii) a non-attendance order, and
(b) the determination of those applications.

(5) A non-attendance order is an order under section (Application for non-attendance order) prohibiting the accused from attending or making representations in proceedings for the determination of the application for the section (Order preventing or restricting disclosure: application by Secretary of State) order to which the non-attendance order relates.

(6) Subsection (7) applies where the Secretary of State applies—
(a) by virtue of subsection (2)(a) for a restricted notification order and a non-attendance order, or
(b) by virtue of subsection (2)(a) or (b) for a non-attendance order.

(7) Before determining the application for the section (Order preventing or restricting disclosure: application by Secretary of State) order, the court must—
(a) in accordance with section (Application for restricted notification order and non-attendance order), determine any application for a restricted notification order and a non-attendance order,
(b) in accordance with section (Application for non-attendance order), determine any application for a non-attendance order.

Kenny MacAskill

655 After section 106, insert—

<Application for restricted notification order and non-attendance order>

(1) This section applies where by virtue of section (Application for ancillary orders: Secretary of State)(2)(a) the Secretary of State applies for a restricted notification order and a non-attendance order.

(2) On receiving the application, the relevant court must appoint a hearing to determine whether a restricted notification order should be made.

(3) The accused is not to be notified of—
(a) the applications for the section (Order preventing or restricting disclosure: application by Secretary of State) order, the restricted notification order and the non-attendance order, or
(b) the hearing appointed under subsection (2).

(4) The accused is not to be given the opportunity to be heard or be represented at the hearing.

(5) If, after giving the Secretary of State and the prosecutor an opportunity to be heard, the court is satisfied that the conditions in subsection (6) are met, the court may make a restricted notification order.

(6) Those conditions are—
(a) that disclosure to the accused of the making of the application for the section (Order preventing or restricting disclosure: application by Secretary of State) order would be likely to cause a real risk of substantial harm or damage to the public interest, and
(b) that, having regard to all the circumstances, the making of a restricted notification order would be consistent with the accused’s receiving a fair trial.

(7) If the court makes a restricted notification order, it must also make a non-attendance order.

(8) If the court refuses to make a restricted notification order, the court must appoint a hearing to determine the application for a non-attendance order.

(9) If after giving the Secretary of State, the prosecutor and, subject to subsection (10), the accused an opportunity to be heard, the court is satisfied that the conditions in subsection (5) of section (Application for non-attendance order) are met, the court may make a non-attendance order under subsection (4) of that section.

(10) On the application of the Secretary of State the court may exclude the accused from the hearing appointed under subsection (8).

Kenny MacAskill

656 After section 106, insert—

<Application for non-attendance order>

(1) This section applies where by virtue of section (Application for ancillary orders: Secretary of State)(2)(b) the Secretary of State applies for a non-attendance order (but not a restricted notification order).

(2) On receiving the application, the relevant court must appoint a hearing.

(3) On the application of the Secretary of State the court may exclude the accused from the hearing.

(4) If after giving the Secretary of State, the prosecutor and, if not excluded under subsection (3), the accused an opportunity to be heard the court is satisfied that the conditions in subsection (5) are met, the court may make a non-attendance order.

(5) Those conditions are—

(a) that disclosure to the accused of the nature of the information to which the application for the section (Order preventing or restricting disclosure: application by Secretary of State) order relates would be likely to cause a real risk of substantial harm or damage to the public interest, and

(b) that, having regard to all the circumstances, the making of a non-attendance order would be consistent with the accused’s receiving a fair trial.

(a) must give the prosecutor an opportunity to be heard, but
(b) must not give the accused an opportunity to be heard.
( ) Before deciding whether to appoint special counsel in a restricted notification case, the court—
(a) must give the prosecutor and the Secretary of State an opportunity to be heard,
(b) must not give the accused an opportunity to be heard.
( ) Before deciding whether to appoint special counsel in any case other than a non-notification case or a restricted notification case, the court must give all the parties an opportunity to be heard.
( ) The prosecutor may appeal to the High Court against a decision of the court not to appoint special counsel in any case.
( ) The Secretary of State may appeal to the High Court against a decision of the court not to appoint special counsel in a restricted notification case.
( ) The accused may appeal to the High Court against a decision not to appoint special counsel in any case other than a non-notification case or a restricted notification case.
( ) In this section and section (Role of special counsel)—
“non-notification case” means a case where the court is determining—
(a) an application for a non-notification order,
(b) an application for review of the grant or refusal of a non-notification order,
(c) an appeal relating to such an order,
“restricted notification case” means a case where the court is determining—
(a) an application for a restricted notification order,
(b) an application for review of the grant or refusal of a restricted notification order,
(c) an appeal relating to such an order.>

After section 107

Kenny MacAskill

660 After section 107, insert—
Persons eligible for appointment as special counsel

The court may appoint a person as special counsel under section 107(2) only if the person is a solicitor or advocate.

Kenny MacAskill

661 After section 107, insert—

Role of special counsel

(1) Special counsel’s duty is, in relation to the determination of the relevant application or appeal, to act in the best interests of the accused with a view only to ensuring that the accused receives a fair trial.

(2) Special counsel—

(a) is entitled to see the confidential information, but

(b) must not disclose any of the confidential information to the accused or the accused’s representative (if any).

(3) Special counsel appointed in a non-notification case or a restricted notification case must not—

(a) disclose to the accused or the accused’s representative (if any) the making of the relevant application or appeal, or

(b) otherwise communicate with the accused or the accused’s representative (if any) about the relevant application or appeal.

(4) Special counsel appointed in any case other than a non-notification case or a restricted notification case must not communicate with the accused about the relevant application or appeal except—

(a) with the permission of the court, and

(b) where permission is given, in accordance with such conditions as the court may impose.

(5) Before deciding whether to grant permission, the court must give—

(a) the prosecutor, and

(b) in the case of an application for a section (Order preventing or restricting disclosure: application by Secretary of State) order or a non-attendance order, the Secretary of State, an opportunity to be heard.

(6) In this section—

“the confidential information” means—

(a) the information to which the relevant application or appeal relates, and

(b) a copy of the relevant application or appeal,

“relevant application or appeal” means the application or appeal referred to in section 107(1) in respect of which special counsel is appointed.

Kenny MacAskill

662 After section 107, insert—
Appeals

(1) The prosecutor may appeal to the High Court against—
   (a) the making of a section 106 order under section 106(4B),
   (b) the making of a section (Order preventing or restricting disclosure: application by Secretary of State) order,
   (c) the making of a restricted notification order,
   (d) the making of a non-attendance order,
   (e) the refusal of an application for a non-notification order,
   (f) the refusal of an application for an exclusion order, or
   (g) the refusal of an application for a section 106 order.

(2) The accused may appeal to the High Court against the making of—
   (a) an exclusion order under section 105(3),
   (b) a section 106 order,
   (c) a section (Order preventing or restricting disclosure: application by Secretary of State) order, or
   (d) a non-attendance order.

(3) The Secretary of State may appeal to the High Court against—
   (a) the making of a section (Order preventing or restricting disclosure: application by Secretary of State) order under section (Order preventing or restricting disclosure: application by Secretary of State)(7),
   (b) the refusal of an application for a restricted notification order,
   (c) the refusal of an application for a non-attendance order, or
   (d) the refusal of an application for a section (Order preventing or restricting disclosure: application by Secretary of State) order.

(4) If special counsel was appointed in relation to an application for a non-notification order, special counsel may appeal to the High Court against the making of—
   (a) the non-notification order, or
   (b) a section 106 order in relation to the same item of information.

(5) If special counsel was appointed in relation to an application for a restricted notification order, special counsel may appeal to the High Court against the making of—
   (a) the restricted notification order, or
   (b) a section (Order preventing or restricting disclosure: application by Secretary of State) order in relation to the same item of information.

(6) An appeal must be lodged not later than 7 days after the decision appealed against.

(7) The prosecutor is entitled to be heard in any appeal under this section.

(8) The accused is entitled to be heard in an appeal under—
   (a) subsection (1)(a) or (g) or (2)(b) unless—
      (i) a non-notification order has been made, or
      (ii) an exclusion order has been made,
(b) subsection (1)(b), (2)(c) or (3)(a) or (d) unless—
   (i) a restricted notification order has been made, or
   (ii) a non-attendance order has been made,
(c) subsection (1)(d), (2)(d) or (3)(c) unless the court, on the application of the Secretary of State, excludes the accused from the hearing,
(d) subsection (1)(f) or (2)(a) unless the court, on the application of the prosecutor excludes the accused from the hearing.

(9) The Secretary of State is entitled to be heard in an appeal under subsection (1)(b), (c) or (d), (2)(c) or (d) or (5).>

<Review of section (Order preventing or restricting disclosure: application by Secretary of State) order>

(1) This section applies where—

(a) the court makes a section (Order preventing or restricting disclosure: application by Secretary of State) order, and
(b) during the relevant period the Secretary of State, the prosecutor, special counsel or the accused becomes aware of information that was unavailable to the court at the time when the order was made.

(2) The Secretary of State or, as the case may be, the prosecutor, special counsel or the accused may apply to the court to review the order.

(3) Except in the case mentioned in subsection (4), the same persons are entitled to be heard on the application for review as were entitled to be heard on the application for the order.

(4) If—

(a) a restricted notification order was granted in relation to the order which is under review, and

(b) the court is satisfied that the conditions in section (Application for restricted notification order and non-attendance order)(6) are met, the court may, where the Secretary of State or, as the case may be, the prosecutor or special counsel applies for the review, make an order prohibiting notification of the application for review being given to the accused.

(5) If—

(a) a non-attendance order was granted in relation to the order which is under review, and

(b) the court is satisfied that the conditions in section (Application for non-attendance order)(5) are met, the court may, where the Secretary of State or, as the case may be, the prosecutor, special counsel or the accused applies for the review, exclude the accused from the review.

(6) If the court is not satisfied that the conditions mentioned in section (Order preventing or restricting disclosure: application by Secretary of State)(4) are met, the court may—

(a) recall the order which is under review, or

(b) recall the order which is under review and make an order requiring the information to be disclosed or partly disclosed to the accused in the specified manner.

(7) Nothing in this section affects any right of appeal in relation to the order which is under review.

(8) In this section—

“specified” means specified in the order of the court,

“the relevant period”, in relation to an accused, means the period—

(a) beginning with the making of the section (Order preventing or restricting disclosure: application by Secretary of State) order, and

(b) ending with the conclusion of the proceedings against the accused.

<Abolition of common law rules about disclosure>

(1) The provisions of this Part replace any equivalent common law rules about disclosure of information by the prosecutor in connection with criminal proceedings.

(2) The common law rules about disclosure of information by the prosecutor in connection with criminal proceedings are abolished in so far as they are replaced by or are inconsistent with the provisions of this Part.
Sections (Application by accused for ruling on disclosure) and (Application by appellant for ruling on disclosure) do not affect any right under the common law of an accused or appellant to seek disclosure or recovery of information by or from the prosecutor by means of a procedure other than an application under one or other of those sections.

Subsection (5) applies where, following an application (the “earlier disclosure application”) by the accused or the appellant under section (Application by accused for ruling on disclosure) or section (Application by appellant for ruling on disclosure), the court has made a ruling that (as the case may be)—

(a) section 89(3) does not apply to information, or

(b) information does not fall within section (Duty to disclose after conclusion of proceedings at first instance)(3).

The accused or, as the case may be, the appellant, is not entitled to seek the disclosure or recovery of the same information by or from the prosecutor by means of any other procedure at common law on grounds that are substantially the same as any of those on which the earlier disclosure application was made.

Subsection (7) applies where, following an application (the “earlier common law application”) by the accused under a procedure other than an application under section (Application by accused for ruling on disclosure) or (Application by appellant for ruling on disclosure), the court has decided not to make an order for the recovery or disclosure of information by or from the prosecutor.

The accused or, as the case may be, the appellant is not entitled to make an application under section (Application by accused for ruling on disclosure) or (Application by appellant for ruling on disclosure) in relation to the same information on grounds that are substantially the same as any of those on which the earlier common law application was made.

“(ab) adult entertainment venues (as defined in section 45A) in relation to which Schedule 2 (as modified for the purposes of that section) have effect, while being used as such;”.

(3) The title of Part 3 becomes “Control of sex shops and adult entertainment venues”.

82
After section 45 insert—

"45A Control of lap dancing and other adult entertainment venues

(1) A local authority may resolve that Schedule 2, as modified for the purposes of this section, is to have effect in their area in relation to adult entertainment venues; and, if they do so resolve, that Schedule (as so modified) has effect from the day specified in the resolution.

(2) The day referred to in subsection (1) must not be before the expiry of the period of one month beginning with the day on which the resolution is passed.

(3) A local authority must, not later than 28 days before the day referred to in subsection (1), publish notice that they have passed a resolution under this section in a newspaper circulating in their area.

(4) The notice is to state the general effect of Schedule 2, as modified for the purposes of this section.

(5) For the purposes of this section, Schedule 2 is modified as follows—

(a) in paragraph 1, sub-paragraphs (b)(ii) (and the word “or” immediately preceding it) and (c) are omitted;

(b) for paragraph 2 substitute—

“In this Schedule, “adult entertainment venue” has the same meaning as in section 45A.”;

(c) in paragraph 9—

(i) after sub-paragraph (5)(c) insert—

“(ca) where it is intended to sell alcohol in the adult entertainment venue, an application for the grant, renewal or transfer of a premises licence under Part 3 of the Licensing (Scotland) Act 2005 (asp 16) relating to that venue has been refused;”;

(ii) after sub-paragraph (6) insert—

“(6A) A local authority may refuse an application for the grant or renewal of a licence despite the fact that a premises licence under Part 3 of the Licensing (Scotland) Act 2005 (asp 16) is in effect in relation to the adult entertainment venue.”;

(d) in paragraph 25, for “section 45” in each place where those words occur, substitute “section 45A”; and

(e) for “sex shop”, in each place where those words occur, substitute “adult entertainment venue”.

(6) In this section, “adult entertainment venue” means any premises, vehicle, vessel or stall used for a business which consists to a significant degree of providing relevant entertainment before a live audience; and, for the purposes of that definition—

“audience” includes an audience of one;

“display of nudity” means—

(a) in the case of a woman, exposure of her breasts, nipples, pubic area, genitals or anus;

(b) in the case of a man, exposure of his pubic area, genitals or anus;
“relevant entertainment” means—
(a) any live performance; or
(b) any live display of nudity, which is of such a nature that, ignoring financial gain, it must reasonably be assumed to be provided solely or principally for the purpose of sexually stimulating any member of the audience (whether by verbal or other means).”.

141B Vicarious liability of premises licence holders and interested parties

(1) Subsection (2) applies where, on or in relation to any licensed premises, a person commits an offence to which this section applies while acting as the employee or agent of—
   (a) the holder of the premises licence, or
   (b) an interested party.

(2) The holder of the premises licence or, as the case may be, the interested party is also guilty of the offence and liable to be proceeded against and punished accordingly.

(3) It is a defence for a holder of a premises licence or an interested party charged with an offence to which this section applies by virtue of subsection (2) to prove that the holder of the licence or, as the case may be, the interested party—
   (a) did not know that the offence was being committed by the employee or agent, and
   (b) exercised all due diligence to prevent the offence being committed.

(4) Proceedings may be taken against the holder of the premises licence or the interested party in respect of the offence whether or not proceedings are also taken against the employee or agent who committed the offence.

(5) This section applies to an offence under any of the following provisions of this Act—
   section 1(3),
   section 15(5),
   section 63(1),
   section 97(7),
   section 102(1),

A stipendiary magistrate may, by reason of holding that office—

(a) exercise the same judicial and signing functions as are exercisable by a JP,
(b) do so in the same manner as a JP (including by using the title of office of JP).

For the purpose of subsection (1)—

(a) the acts of a stipendiary magistrate are valid as if the magistrate were a JP,
(b) it does not matter if an enactment from which a JP derives authority to act in a specific case does not bear to give equivalent authority to a stipendiary magistrate.
(3) However, subsections (1) and (2) are subject to any provision of an enactment which expressly excludes a stipendiary magistrate from acting in a specific case.

(4) This section does not limit any other functions of a stipendiary magistrate (in particular, those exercisable in that capacity only).”.
