Before section 3

Peter Peacock

227 Before section 3, insert—

<Compilation of community maps and plans>

(1) The Commission may, upon a reasonable request to do so, provide assistance, directly or in association with others, to a crofting community to compile a community map and plan.

(2) Such assistance as the Commission may provide and what they consider to be a crofting community for this purpose may be set out in the Commission’s plan, to be prepared under section 2C of the 1993 Act.

(3) The Commission may make arrangements to hold and maintain such a community map and plan for the purpose of supporting the effective discharge of the Commission’s functions.

(4) A community map and plan may contain the following information about the land that the crofting community occupies—

(a) its ownership;

(b) its features and physical assets;

(c) its boundaries, and—

(i) the name, location and boundaries of each croft;

(ii) the name of the tenant and landlord of each croft; and

(iii) the location and boundaries of each common grazings, within those boundaries;

(d) the use to which croft land is put.

(5) A community map and plan may also contain information about—

(a) the extent to which it appears to the crofting community that—
(i) any crofter is absent;
(ii) any croft is neglected or misused;
(b) any other relevant matters of concern to the crofting community.

(2) A person authorised by the Commission may enter the croft for the purposes of—

(a) affixing the notice;
(b) complying with section 11(6A); and
(c) removing the notice in accordance with subsection (3)(b).

(3) The Commission must—

(a) when affixing the notice, take all reasonable care not to damage the croft or the part of the croft to which the notice is affixed; and
(b) remove the notice no later than one week after the end of the period mentioned in section 11(5).

First registration of common grazings

(1) An unregistered common grazing—
(a) must be registered, in the case of a new common grazing, subject to section 51B of the 1993 Act, on the determination under section 51A(1) of that Act to constitute the land as a common grazing;
(b) may be registered, in any other case, on an application being made by the Commission.

(2) In this Part—
“first registration” in relation to an unregistered common grazing, means the registration of that common grazing;
“new common grazing” means land in relation to which the Commission have made a determination, under section 51A(1) of the 1993 Act, to constitute the land as a common grazing.

Registration of events affecting registered common grazings

(1) The following events in relation to a registered common grazing must be registered, that is—
(a) the transfer (whether or not for valuable consideration) of the ownership of any land on which the common grazing is situated;
(b) the taking, in relation to the common grazing, of a step mentioned in subsection (2).

(2) The steps referred to in subsection (1)(b) are—
(a) the giving of authorisation to resume the common grazing or part of the common grazing under section 20(1) of the 1993 Act;
(b) the granting under section 20(1C) of that Act of an extension of the period for which resumption of the common grazing is authorised;
(c) the making of a determination under section 20(1F) of that Act converting a temporary resumption of the common grazing into an ordinary resumption;
(d) the making of an order under section 21A of that Act that land resumed under section 20 of that Act is to revert to being a common grazing;
(e) the enlargement of the common grazing under section 51 of that Act;
(f) the termination of all or part of a person’s share in the common grazing under section 52(1E)(b)(i) of that Act;
(g) the apportionment—
(i) of a share or part of a share in the common grazing under section 52(1E)(b)(ii) of that Act;
(ii) of the common grazing, or part of the common grazing, under 52(3) of that Act;
(iii) of a part of the common grazing under section 52(4) of that Act;

(h) the extension, under subsection (11) of section 52 of that Act, of any period for which a part of the common grazing is apportioned under subsection (10) of that section;

(i) the bringing to an end, under subsection (12) of section 52 of that Act, of an apportionment of the common grazing or part of the common grazing made in pursuance of subsection (3) or (4) of that section;

(j) the making of a determination under section 52(14) of that Act as to shares in the common grazing;

(k) the transfer (whether or not for valuable consideration) by a person who holds a right in the common grazing of that right to another person.

(3) But no application for registration of a step mentioned in paragraph (g)(iii) or paragraph (i) of subsection (2) need be submitted if an application for registration of such a step is submitted by virtue of section 5.

(4) The Scottish Ministers may, by regulations, make provision about when ownership is to be treated as transferred for the purposes of subsection (1)(a).

(5) The Scottish Ministers may, by order, modify subsection (2) so as to—

(a) add a step to;

(b) modify the description of a step in;

(c) remove a step from,

that subsection.

<Applications for registration: common grazings

(1) An application for—

(a) first registration of a new common grazing; or

(b) registration of an event affecting a registered common grazing (other than one which falls to be submitted by the Commission), and the fee payable in respect of such registration, is to be submitted to the Commission.

(2) An application for first registration of a new common grazing is to be submitted at the same time as an application under section 51A(1) of the 1993 Act.

(3) An application for registration of an event affecting a registered common grazing is to be submitted—

(a) in the case of the transfer of the ownership of any land on which the common grazing is situated, by the person to whom such ownership is transferred;

(b) in the case of a step mentioned in (Registration of events affecting registered common grazings)(2)—

(i) in accordance with the requirements of the 1993 Act; or

(ii) in the absence of such requirements, as soon as reasonably practicable after the step is taken.
(4) In respect of an application submitted to the Commission under this section, the Commission must, subject to section 51B of the 1993 Act and to subsections (5) and (6), forward—

(a) the application, together with any comments they may have on it; and

(b) the fee payable in respect of it,

to the Keeper as soon as reasonably practicable.

(5) The Commission may, before forwarding an application for registration to the Keeper, require the applicant to provide them with such further information relating to the application as they consider appropriate.

(6) The Commission may refuse to forward an application for registration if—

(a) a requirement under subsection (5) is not complied with;

(b) the application is frivolous or vexatious;

(c) the fee payable in respect of registration has not been tendered;

(d) there is a material inaccuracy in the application; or

(e) they consider that the Keeper would otherwise not accept the application under section 7(2).

(7) Where the Commission refuse to forward an application for registration, section 52A of the 1993 Act applies as if that refusal were a decision of the Commission on an application to them under that Act.

(8) An application for first registration of a common grazing by the Commission is to be submitted to the Keeper.

(9) Before submitting such an application, the Commission must consult—

(a) the owner of the common grazing; and

(b) where there is a grazings committee or grazings constable, that committee or that constable.

(10) Where there is no grazings committee or grazings constable, the Commission must notify, in such manner as they consider appropriate (including by means of advertisement), all persons who hold a right in the common grazing of the application.

(11) Any person notified under subsection (10) may make representations to the Commission in respect of the proposed application.

(12) In subsection (6)(d), “material inaccuracy” means an inaccuracy relating to any matter mentioned in section 10(2) (as that section applies, with the modifications specified in schedule (Application of Act to common grazings), to common grazings).

(13) Section 6 does not apply to applications for registration of a common grazing.

Registration of new common grazings

(1) In subsection (1) of section 51A of the 1993 Act (new common grazings), the words from “by entering” to the end of the subsection are repealed.

(2) After that section insert—

“51B Registration of new common grazings

(1) Subsection (2) applies where the Commission make a determination to exercise their power under section 51A(1) to constitute land as a common grazing.

(2) The application for registration of the land in the Crofting Register must not be forwarded to the Keeper under section (Applications for registration: common grazings)(4) of the 2010 Act—

(a) until the period mentioned in section 52A(2)(b) has expired without any appeal to the Land Court being made; or

(b) where such an appeal is made, until it is abandoned or the Court confirms the Commission’s determination under section 51A(1).

(3) Where land in respect of which a determination under section 51A(1) is made is registered in the Crofting Register the land is, for the purposes of this Act and from the date of registration, a common grazing.”.

Transfer of land containing crofts: offences

(1) A person commits an offence if—

(a) ownership of an owner-occupied croft having been transferred to the person as is mentioned in section 4(1)(aa)(i); or

(b) ownership of land having been transferred to the person as is mentioned in section 4(1)(b)(i),

the person fails within one year of the transfer to apply to register the owner-occupied croft or, as the case may be, a croft situated on the land.

(2) A person commits an offence in respect of each further one year period where the person continues to fail to apply to register the owner-occupied croft or, as the case may be, a croft mentioned in subsection (1).

(3) But an offence under subsection (1) or (2) cannot be committed by a person in respect of a croft after the person is no longer required, by virtue of section 4(4C), to register the croft.

(4) Where there is more than one croft situated on land such as is mentioned in section 4(1)(b)(i), separate offences under subsection (1) or (2) may be committed in respect of each such croft.

(5) A person commits an offence if—
(a) ownership of an owner-occupied croft having been transferred to the person as is mentioned in section 5(1)(za)(i); or

(b) ownership of land having been transferred to the person as is mentioned in section 5(1)(zb)(i),

the person fails within one year of the transfer to apply to register the transfer.

(6) A person commits an offence in respect of each further one year period where the person continues to fail to apply to register the transfer mentioned in subsection (5).

(7) A person who commits an offence under subsection (1), (2), (5) or (6) is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale.

Roseanna Cunningham

192 After section 19, insert—

<Change of landlord: offences

(1) A person commits an offence if, having become the landlord of a croft, the person fails, within one year of becoming such a landlord, to apply to register the change of landlord in accordance with section 5(1)(zb)(ii).

(2) A person commits an offence in respect of each further one year period where the person continues to fail to apply to register the change of landlord mentioned in subsection (1).

(3) But no offence is committed under this section by a person who becomes the landlord of a croft by virtue of the transfer of ownership of land on which the croft is situated.

(4) A person who commits an offence under subsection (1) or (2) is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale.

Roseanna Cunningham

193 After section 19, insert

<Transfer of land on which common grazing is situated: offences

(1) A person commits an offence if, ownership of land such as is mentioned in section (Registration of events affecting registered common grazings)(1)(a) having been transferred to the person, the person fails within one year of the transfer to apply to register the transfer.

(2) A person commits an offence in respect of each further one year period where the person continues to fail to apply to register the transfer mentioned in subsection (1).

(3) A person who commits an offence under subsection (1) or (2) is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding level 3 on the standard scale.

Roseanna Cunningham

194 After section 19, insert—

<Lands held runrig

(1) Unregistered land held runrig may be registered on an application being made by the Commission.
(2) An application for first registration of land held runrig is to be submitted to the Keeper.

(3) Before submitting such an application the Commission must—
   (a) consult the owner of the land; and
   (b) notify, in such manner as they consider appropriate (including by means of advertisement), all persons who are holders of the land held runrig.

(4) Any person notified under subsection (3) may make representations to the Commission in respect of the application.

(5) The following events in relation to registered land held runrig must be registered, that is—
   (a) the apportionment of the land under section 52(8) of the 1993 Act;
   (b) the extension, under subsection (11) of section 52 of that Act, of any period for which a part of the land is apportioned under subsection (10) of that section.

(6) An application for registration of an event mentioned in subsection (5), and the fee payable in respect of such registration, is to be submitted to the Commission.

(7) In respect of such an application, the Commission must, subject to subsections (8) and (9), forward—
   (a) the application, together with any comments they may have on it; and
   (b) the fee payable in respect of it,
   to the Keeper as soon as reasonably practicable.

(8) The Commission may, before forwarding an application for registration to the Keeper, require the applicant to provide them with such further information relating to the application as they consider appropriate.

(9) The Commission may refuse to forward an application for registration if—
   (a) a requirement under subsection (8) is not complied with;
   (b) the application is frivolous or vexatious;
   (c) the fee payable in respect of registration has not been tendered;
   (d) there is a material inaccuracy in the application; or
   (e) they consider that the Keeper would otherwise not accept the application under section 7(2).

(10) Where the Commission refuse to forward an application for registration, section 52A of the 1993 Act applies as if that refusal were a decision of the Commission on an application to them under that Act.

(11) Section 6 does not apply to applications for registration of land held runrig.

(12) Sections 7 to 17 apply, with such modifications as may be necessary, in relation to lands held runrig as they apply in relation to common grazings.

(13) The reference to sections in subsection (12) is, where those sections are modified for the purposes of their application in relation to common grazings, to those sections as so modified.

(14) In subsection (9)(d), “material inaccuracy” means an inaccuracy relating to any matter mentioned in section 10(2) (as that section applies, by virtue of subsection (12), to lands held runrig).
(15) The Scottish Ministers may, by order, modify subsection (5) so as to—
(a) add an event to;
(b) modify the description of an event in;
(c) remove an event from,
that subsection.

(16) In this Part, “first registration”, in relation to unregistered land held runrig, means the registration of that land.>

<SCHEDULE
(introduced by section (Application of Act to common grazings))

APPLICATION OF ACT TO COMMON GRAZINGS

1 Section 7 applies to an application for registration forwarded under subsection (4) of section (Applications for registration: common grazings) or submitted under subsection (9) of that section as it applies to an application for registration mentioned in section 7, with the following modifications—
(a) in subsection (1), for “section 6(4)(b)” substitute “subsection (4) of (Applications for registration: common grazings) or submitted under subsection (9) of that section”;
(b) for “croft”, in each place where it appears in subsections (2), (2A) and (4), substitute “common grazing”;
(c) in subsection (2A), for “common grazing”, in each place where it appears, substitute “croft”.

2 Section 8 applies to registration relating to a common grazing as it applies to registration relating to a croft, with the following modifications—
(a) for “croft”, in each place where it appears in subsections (1), (2) and (4), substitute “common grazing”;
(b) in subsection (2A), for “the crofter of the croft” substitute “any grazings committee, or grazings constable, appointed in respect of the common grazing”;
(c) subsection (3) is omitted.

3 Section 9 applies to a first registration of a common grazing as it applies to a first registration of a croft, with the following modifications—
(a) for “croft”, where it appears in each of subsections (1) and (2), substitute “common grazing”;
(b) subsections (3) to (3E) and (5) are omitted.

4 Section 10 applies to a common grazing as it applies to a croft, with the following modifications—
(a) for “croft”, in each place where it appears in subsections (1), (2)(a), (2A), (2B) and (5), substitute “common grazing”;
(b) for paragraph (b) of subsection (2) substitute—

“(b) the name and address of the owner of the common grazing;

(ba) details of any croft of which a right in the common grazing forms part (including, where the croft is registered, a reference to the registration schedule of the croft);

(bb) the name and designation of, as the case may be—

(i) any tenant of such a croft;

(ii) any owner-occupier crofter of such a croft;

(iii) any landlord of such a croft;

(iv) any owner of such a croft;

(bc) the name and designation of any other person who holds a right in the common grazing;”;

(c) in subsection (2B), for “common grazing”, in each place where it appears, substitute “croft”.

Section 11 applies to a certificate of registration relating to a common grazing received under section 8(2) as it applies to a certificate of registration relating to a croft received under section 8(2) or, as the case may be, (3), with the following modifications—

(a) in subsection (3)—

(i) for “croft”, where it appears in each of paragraphs (a) and (b), substitute “common grazing”;

(ii) paragraphs (c) and (d) are omitted;

(iii) after paragraph (d) insert—

“(da) the grazings committee or grazings constable (or, where there is no such committee or constable, any person of whom the Commission are aware who holds a right in the common grazing);”;

(iv) for “croft”, where it appears in each of paragraphs (e), (f) and (h), substitute “land”;

(v) in paragraph (g) for “of any adjacent croft” substitute “, or any other tenant, of any adjacent land”;

<5C Crofters: duty to cultivate and maintain

(1) A crofter must comply with each of the duties set out in subsection (2).

(2) Those duties are that the crofter—

(a) must—

(i) cultivate the croft; or

(ii) put it to another purposeful use,

so that every part of the croft is cultivated or put to such use;

(b) must keep the croft in a fit state for cultivation (except in so far as the use of the croft for another purposeful use is incompatible with the croft being kept in such a state).

(3) Without prejudice to the generality of paragraph (b) of subsection (2), in determining whether that paragraph is complied with regard is to be had to whether appropriate measures (which may include the provision of drainage) are routinely undertaken, where requisite and practicable, to control or eradicate vermin, bracken, whins, broom, rushes, iris and harmful weeds.

(4) A crofter may only put the croft to a use mentioned in subsection (2)(a)(ii) if—

(a) the landlord has consented to the use (unconditionally or subject to conditions acceptable to the crofter); or

(b) the Commission have consented to the use.

(5) But a crofter may not apply to the Commission for consent under subsection (4)(b) until (the earlier of)—

(a) the landlord has refused consent (or granted consent subject to conditions unacceptable to the crofter); or

(b) the period of 28 days, commencing with the date on which the request for the consent of the landlord was made, has expired.

(6) The Commission must, on receipt of such an application for consent—

(a) consult, as regards the proposed purposeful use, the landlord and the members of the crofting community in the locality of the land; and

(b) if the proposed purposeful use—

(i) constitutes a change for which planning permission is required; or

(ii) by virtue of any enactment (other than this Act) requires any other permission or approval, require it to be shown that the permission or approval has been given.

(7) The Commission must decide the application within 28 days after receiving it; and if they give their consent may impose such conditions as they think fit.

(8) In this Act—
“cultivate” includes the use of a croft for horticulture or for any purpose of husbandry, including the keeping or breeding of livestock, poultry or bees, the growing of fruit, vegetables and the like and the planting of trees and use of the land as woodlands;
“purposeful use” means any planned and managed use which does not adversely affect—
(a) the croft;
(b) the public interest;
(c) the interests of the landlord or (if different) the owner; or
(d) the use of adjacent land.”.

(b) after that subsection insert—

“(4ZA) Where a direction is applied for under subsection (4) in relation to an unregistered croft—
(a) the Commission may not make such a direction unless an application for first registration of the croft is submitted before the expiry of the period of 6 months beginning with the date on which the application for the direction is made;

(b) the Commission need not, during that 6 month period, consider the application for the direction until an application for first registration of the croft is submitted.

(4ZB) Where a direction under section 24(3) is made by virtue of an application under subsection (4) in relation to a first registered croft—

(a) the crofter who applied for the direction must, within 3 months of acquiring land or a site as mentioned in that subsection, notify the Commission of the acquisition;

(b) the direction—

(i) does not have effect unless the conditions in subsection (4) are satisfied;

(ii) takes effect on the giving of notification of the direction under section 9(3E)(c) of the 2010 Act.

(4ZC) Subsection (4ZD) applies to a direction under section 24(3) which is made—

(a) by virtue of an application under subsection (4); and

(b) in relation to a registered croft (other than a first registered croft).

(4ZD) The direction—

(a) does not have effect unless—

(i) the conditions mentioned in subsection (4) are satisfied; and

(ii) an application for registration of the making of the direction is made by virtue of section 5 of the 2010 Act before the expiry of the period of 5 years mentioned in that subsection;

(b) takes effect, if those conditions and the condition mentioned in paragraph (a)(ii) are satisfied on or before the date of registration, on the date of registration.”>

217 In schedule 2, page 44, line 19, at end insert—

<(  ) In section 52 (miscellaneous provisions as to common grazings, etc.)—

(a) after subsection (1E) insert—

“(1EA) Where the Commission make a determination under subsection (1E) that all or part of a person’s share in a registered common grazing is terminated—
(a) the Commission must, as soon as reasonably practicable after making the determination, submit an application for registration of the termination by virtue of section (Registration of events affecting registered common grazings) of the 2010 Act;

(b) the termination takes effect on the date of registration.

(1EB) Any apportionment of all or part of a person’s share in a registered common grazing under subsection (1E) above takes effect, as respects an application for registration of the apportionment by virtue of section (Registration of events affecting registered common grazings) of the 2010 Act, on the date of registration.”;

(b) after subsection (3) insert—

“(3A) In relation to a registered common grazing—

(a) any apportionment of the common grazing under subsection (3) expires at the end of the period of 3 months beginning with the date on which the common grazing was so apportioned unless an application for registration of the apportionment is submitted by virtue of section (Registration of events affecting registered common grazings) of the 2010 Act before the expiry of that period;

(b) the apportionment takes effect on the date of registration.”;

(c) after subsection (5) insert—

“(5A) Where an application is made under subsection (4) by the crofter of an unregistered croft, the Commission—

(a) may not apportion a part of the common grazing unless an application for first registration of the croft is submitted before the expiry of the period of 6 months beginning with the date on which the application to apportion a part of the common grazing was made;

(b) need not, during that 6 month period, consider the application to apportion a part of the common grazing until an application for first registration of the croft is submitted.

(5B) Where an application under subsection (4) by the crofter of a registered croft (other than a first registered croft) is granted—

(a) the apportionment of a part of the common grazing expires at the end of the period of 3 months beginning with the date on which the part was so apportioned unless an application for registration of the apportionment is submitted by virtue of section 5 of the 2010 Act before the expiry of that period;

(b) the apportionment takes effect on the date of registration.

(5C) In relation to a registered common grazing—

(a) any apportionment of a part of the common grazing under subsection (4) expires at the end of the period of 3 months beginning with the date on which the part was so apportioned unless an application for registration of the apportionment is submitted by virtue of section (Registration of events affecting registered common grazings) of the 2010 Act before the expiry of that period;

(b) the apportionment of the part takes effect on the date of registration.
(5D) But subsection (5C) does not apply to an apportionment which takes effect by virtue of subsection (5B).’’;

d) after subsection (7) insert—

“(7A) Any transfer by a person who holds a right in a registered common grazing of that right to another person takes effect, as respects an application for registration of the transfer by virtue of section (Registration of events affecting registered common grazings) of the 2010 Act, on the date of registration.’’;

c) after subsection (8) insert—

“(8A) Subsection (5C) applies to an apportionment under subsection (8) of registered lands held runrig as it applies to an apportionment under subsection (4) of a part of a registered common grazing, with the modification that the reference to section (Registration of events affecting registered common grazings) is to be construed as a reference to section (Lands held runrig).

(f) after subsection (11) insert—

“(11A) In relation to a registered common grazing—

(a) any extension under subsection (11) of the period for which a part of a registered common grazing is apportioned ceases to have effect at the end of the period of 3 months beginning with the date on which the period was so extended unless an application for registration of the extension is submitted by virtue of section (Registration of events affecting registered common grazings) of the 2010 Act before the expiry of that 3 month period;

(b) the extension takes effect on the date of registration.

(11B) Subsection (11A) applies to registered land held runrig as it applies to a registered common grazing, with the modification that the reference to section (Registration of events affecting registered common grazings) is to be construed as a reference to section (Lands held runrig).’’;

g) after subsection (12) insert—

“(12A) Subsection (12B) applies to an application by the crofter of a registered croft (other than a first registered croft) made under subsection (12) to bring to an end an apportionment made in pursuance of subsection (4).

(12B) Where the application is granted—

(a) the granting of the application expires at the end of the period of 3 months beginning with the date of the granting unless an application for registration of the bringing to an end of the apportionment is submitted by virtue of section 5 of the 2010 Act before the expiry of that period;

(b) the bringing to an end of the apportionment takes effect on the date of registration.

(12C) Where it is determined under subsection (12)(b)(iii) that an apportionment of a registered common grazing is to come to an end, the apportionment comes to an end, as respects an application for registration of the bringing of it to an end by virtue of section (Registration of events affecting registered common grazings) of the 2010 Act, on the date of registration.

(12D) But subsection (12C) does not apply to an apportionment the bringing to an end of which takes effect by virtue of subsection (12B).’’;
(h) after subsection (14) insert—

“(14A) Any determination under subsection (14) takes effect, as respects an application for registration of the making of the determination by virtue of section (Registration of events affecting registered common grazings) of the 2010 Act, on the date of registration.”;
