End of Life Assistance (Scotland) Bill

Nathalie Andrews

To whom it may concern, my answers to the following questions can be seen below written in black. I strongly believe that everyone has the right to choose a dignified death

- Do you agree a person should be able to request end of life assistance from a registered medical practitioner? Yes
- Are you satisfied with the requirements for age and connection with Scotland as set out in the Bill? Yes
- Are you satisfied with the two categories of people who would qualify to be assisted under the terms of the Bill? Yes
- The Bill outlines a several stage consent and verification process that would be required to be followed for an eligible person to receive end of life assistance. Are you satisfied with this process? Yes
- Do you consider the level and nature of safeguards as set out in the Bill to be appropriate? Yes
- Do you have any other considerations on the Bill not included in answers to the above questions? No
