End of Life Assistance (Scotland) Bill

S McCombie

I am very much against this bill. It is morally wrong to take someone's life in our hands.

Doctors and medicine should be to preserve life not help end it. Our society should value people even if they are very ill or elderly. Without this bill in place common sense should be enough. People don't choose when to be born and they shouldn't decide to die either.

Mrs S McCombie
12 May 2010