8th May, 2010.

The End of Life Assistance Bill Committee,
The Scottish Parliament
Edinburgh EH99 1SP

For the attention of the ELA8 Committee,

I am deeply concerned about the proposed Bill to assist in ending life and strongly oppose it. It is not for any human being to determine when someone's life should be ended as it is The Lord Who gives and The Lord Who takes.

In this country we condemn murder and rightly so, but if this Bill is allowed we are agreeing to legalised murder. No one wants to suffer or to see others suffering, but I am sure that medical staff offer good health care and help to alleviate suffering.

I feel that assisted suicide can be wrongly used and cannot prevent abuses occurring.

No one has the right to take someone's life.

Yours Faithfully,

Margaret White