Dear MSP & Committee Members

I am very worried about the implications of the End of Life Assistance (Scotland) Bill proposed by MSP Marco Macdonald. I think the Bill is very dangerously and should be rejected because it will put large numbers of sick or disabled Scottish people at risk.

Its so-called safeguards are illusory. It will to elderly, sick and disabled people feeling they are a burden.

Yours sincerely

James Gaughan