1. I disagree with my whole being to such a Bill. It is continuing the "culture of death" that started with abortion. I find it very frightening, to me it speaks of Hitler. We have no right whatever to take life. The west of Western society was founded on Christianity and the protection of life. The medical profession takes an oath to protect life. What an insult to them! This Bill would bring a new vulnerability to old people, sick people, handicapped people. I pray to God that no such Bill could ever be passed in my beloved country Scotland. This answers all 6 questions.

Helen T Smith