The End of Life Assistance Bill Committee
T 3,60
The Scottish Parliament
Edinburgh.

28.4.2010.

I write to you with my concern regarding the End of Life Assistance Bill.

I firmly believe that we have 'a time to be born and a time to die' (The Bible, Eccl.3:2) and that God is the author of life.

We have been given the Ten Commandments and as a nation we have departed from them and will reap the judgement of God for our disobedience. 'Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord.' (Ps 37:12)

I am a retired general nurse. I care for my elderly mother in law (98) full time, who lives with us and suffers from severe osteoporosis. My own mother (89) has advanced rheumatoid arthritis. Both these mothers are unable to mobilise independently and need help with daily living. It can be demanding and tiring for them and myself, but we would all agree that we have learnt patience and are enriched by our experiences.

This Bill would put the elderly and vulnerable at risk and would begin the slippery slope which will continue to infanticide and 'mercy-killing'. The horrors of abortion continue.

I urge you to deny the passage of this Bill to the Scottish Parliament.

'Righteousness exalts a nation, but sin is a disgrace to any people.'
Proverbs 14 v 34.

Yours sincerely
