Written response to the recommendations from University of Dundee

Thank you for your letter of 13 September to the Principal, Sir Alan Langlands.

The University of Dundee is addressing the findings of the Committee’s report through its Disability Equality Scheme. By implementing the actions detailed in the scheme, we aim to make progress in removing the barriers faced by disabled people working and studying on the University campuses.

Dr David Duncan
Secretary
University of Dundee
21 September 2007